NEW PRESIDENT MACRON HOSTED IOC DELEGATION FOR BREAKFAST AT ELYSEE PALACE

PARIS 2024 CANDIDACY FOR OLYMPIC GAMES

Paris, Washington DC, 16.05.2017, 16:02 Time

USPA NEWS - "Today we saw the new President Macron and we had a good discussion it did not allow time to lay out something new, but the President gives us the full support", Patrick Baumann announced today at the Press conference at Economic and Social Council, in Paris as an introductory of his keynote.

Today we saw the new President Macron and we had a good discussion it did not allow time to lay out something new, but the President gives us the full support, Patrick Baumann announced today at the Press conference at Economic and Social Council, in Paris as an introductory of his keynote.

PATRICK BAUMAN IS ENTHUSIAST FOR THE BID PARIS 2024 AFTER VISITING THE SITES AND PARIS OFFER FOR THE CANDIDACY-----

"I want to give a word about the city of Paris, chaired by Mrs Anne Hidalgo, the mayor, and I want to thank her for her efforts and dedication and commitment for this bid. She's shown us what Paris area would bring to the candidacy, especially the legacy and all the benefit for all the citizen. "Patrick Bauman, acknowledges.-----

"It is also true that dynamic have brought excellent discussion with the bid committee and this morning at the Elysee, with regard with what we saw yesterday linked to the legacy and checked by the candidacy. The venue, the sites are remarkable and the building handrails are beautiful in Paris and there is a depth union between the culture the history and the city of Paris. The antiques and Sports.-----

We had after day the national federations and sporting world and athletes he developed this bid and the social interacting partners and has enabled and brought together 70 000 volunteers, children and the adults shown their enthusiasm about Paris 2024, the city with its visitors coming here to see the marriage between the games and Paris as a city.-----

As far as I'm concerned the mission will go to Lausanne to finalise this evaluation of the report and the report will be published in 11th July when the presentation will be made in Lausanne before the taking off to Lima in September," Patrick Bauman explained

TONY ESTANGUET AND THE REST OF IOC DELEGATION WELCOMED BY NEW PRESIDENT MACRON

The government is fully involved at the highest level, as shows the invitation of the newly elected President Emmanuel macron who hosted us this morning for a breakfast discussion. The commitment yes beyond beyond the project of bid 2024, but it is not only a project it is real program with eligible program, sustainable, for sports and reliable.-----

It is now assessed, and has been already evaluated for bid 2024, which can be powerful for the legacy, especially.

As a athlete, you can be strongly kindly confident, but at the end the winner is the one who makes the last meters and believe in it. That's what makes the difference" Tony Estanguet Co-chair of IOC, former olympic champion Some 65 athletes have spoken representing more than 100 olympic medias got involved, throughout the process of the bid Paris 2024, including the stakeholders and French government authorities. It is a momentum ready to win resonating for everyone.

Throughout the whole process of preparation of two years, the IOC could feel not only the passion, evolving from yeah parti but also the envy of sharing around the bid2024. Everybody could feel that we really want it to make it, for the sake of the athletes and the rest." Tony Estanguet concluded Tony Estanguet tell us about his meeting with the French President this morning at Elysee Palace "The President Macron shown his enthusiasm" and spoke about "the continuity of support undertaken by President Macron who shown a strong commitment to the bid 2024 project". President Macron, newly invested President, Emmanuel Macon who is a sportive practicer, welcomed the IOC delegation in a very casual way, within a good atmosphere, and put himself very personally involved to the Paris2024 candidature. That is in fact a huge support, for the French bid for Paris2024, coming from the highest level of the French authority, considering that President Trump has not shown the similar interests in the Los Angeles candidature for the Olympic and Paralympic games.-----

So does the French Public Authority including the regional (Presence of Valerie Pecresse, president of the Region Ile de France, right party Les Republicans"), the Mayor of Paris, Anne Hidalgo, fully committed and dedicated to the Paris2024 project, since the beginning of the idea and further up to the new government who have decided to work hand in hand, (regardless their political colors) in order to get success for Paris Candidacy.-----

President Macron explained he will definitely travelling to Lausanne, by the first release of results on 11th July.
