PDT MACRON & WORLD LEADERS STAND BY LEBANON OFFERING SYMPATHY AND ASSISTANCE

MASSIVE BLAST THAT KILLED 73 PEOPLE

Paris, Washington DC, 05.08.2020, 04:33 Time

USPA NEWS - French President Macron said "rescue and aid" were on the way to Lebanon following a massive explosion in Beirut on Tuesday. He added "France stands by Lebanon's sides. Always. French rescue and aid is on its way" . According to Elysee Palace, the French Head of State. Macron talked on the phone with his Lebanese counterpart, Michel Aoun, following the massive blast. Emmanuel Macron tweeted "I express my fraternal solidarity with Lebanese people after the explosion that caused so many casualties and so much damage tonight in Beirut," German Chancellor Angela Merkel said her government is "devastated by the reports and images" coming out of Lebanon, according to her spokesperson Ulrike Demmer. "Our thoughts are with those who have lost loved ones. We wish the wounded a speedy recovery. We will offer Lebanon our help," Merkel said, according to a tweet from Demmer. World leaders have offered support to Lebanon following a massive explosion that killed at least 73 people and wounded more than 3,700 in the capital, Beirut. Circumstances and causes of the massive blast is still unclear as the police investigation just started.

The explosion released shockwaves through the city, flattening much of the port, damaging buildings and sending a giant mushroom cloud into the sky. Hours after the blast, ambulances continued to carry away the wounded as army helicopters helped battle fires raging at the port. Officials expect the death toll to rise. Here's how some world leaders have reacted:

HH EMIR SHEIKH TAMIN BIN HAMAD AL THANI OF QATAR CALLED LEBANESE PDT AND OFFERED ASSISTANCE

Qatar's Emir Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani called President Michel Aoun to offer condolences, according to the state-run Qatar News Agency. The Gulf country said it would send field hospitals to support Lebanon's medical response.
